PROGRAMME

Annotation

On the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the transition to democracy in Czechoslovakia and more broadly in the whole Central Europe, the Embassy of the Czech Republic and the Embassy of the Slovak Republic organise together the one-day conference labelled “30 Years Since the Fall of the Iron Curtain” under the auspice of the President of the National Council of Slovenia H. E. Alojz Kovšca.

The conference would focus on the reflection of the socio-political events after the 1989, including the integration of the Central European countries into the Euro-Atlantic structures, geopolitical change of the Central European region and the transition of the states and societies towards democracy and market economy.
